

After my car accident, I consulted a lawyer who told me that my injury case had little merit, and that I should accept the meager $1,000 settlement offered to me by the defendant. I then engaged The Law Offices of Kenneth A. Wilhelm, which vigorously pursued the case and won a substantial settlement. I remain grateful for their tireless work on my behalf to obtain the settlement I deserved.

Sincerely,

GR